8 Rue Grande Court - Jardin du Lac's , "August Garden of the Month"

The gardens at the home of Kevin and Amy O'Brien, #8 Rue Grande Court, are bursting with vibrant colors, and a variety of plants, trees and shrubs have been perfectly placed to help create a unified and harmonious landscape. This garden has been chosen to be honored as the Jardin du Lac Garden of the Month for August 2025.

The mailbox bed on the left of the driveway has lovely Ti plants seemingly standing guard over boxwoods, deep purple and white petunias, rose pink China roses, and marigolds.

The walkway leading to the entrance of the courtyard is graced with a variety of white impatiences, purple petunias, marigolds, variegated Hosta, boxwoods, and red geraniums. Red mandevilla climb the Pergola posts and invite you into this tranquil garden space that holds coral bells, flaky junipers, China drift roses, lobelia, red salvia creeping Jenny, coleus, and limelight and oak leaf hydrangeas. There is a small sitting area for two amidst the flowers.

After visiting Butchart Gardens in Brentwood Bay, British Columbia, Amy was inspired to create the beds from outside the courtyard all along the front right portion of their home. The cascading garden beds hold, a Japanese spindle tree, a white spruce, an oriental arborvitae, scarlet sage, orange, white, and purple impatiens and China roses.

Amy and Kevin worked hard this year planting 450 annuals and spend some of their time now in the midst of the growing season with Kevin weeding and Amy deadheading.

Amy advises that it is important to think about where you sit and what you see, then put your best flowers or containers there and let it bring you joy!
